Reaching the Lost

Graciela Vazquez has faithfully served with FFHM for over 35 years. She has been running the Outreach department for the past few years helping people from our valley facing financial, spiritual or physical difficulties. Her leadership is an incredible testimony of being the literal hands and feet of Jesus.

Graciela has chosen to change her role and to help support and encourage the ministry of her husband, Mario Cordoba, in the Mission Church. She will be an incredible asset to the church and the community in this role.

The new supervisor of the outreach department will be none other than Graciela and Mario's daughter, Dulce! Dulce is going to bring new life into this much needed department. We are so excited to see how God uses the life of Dulce to fill this role and reach the lost in our valley.

Outreach has blessed this valley for many years. Through this ministry, we have shared the Word of God, sowing seeds of faith in the heart of those with the most need, reaching good results.

An excellent way to reach these thirsty hearts with hope could be a kilo of rice or beans, some groceries, or a blanket; (things that for many other people are trivial). It is incredible to think that with some small basics, doors have been opened to countless families. Yes, today in our valley, some know the word of God. Still, it is also true that every day people are arriving who do not know God, and that is where outreach acts as a channel of blessing to teach them kindness, mercy, love, and the Word of God.

We have new and fresh plans. The objective will always be that adults and children can experience the love of Jesus transforming their lives. We will not remain quiet while we see the spiritual need in their hearts. We will continue in the mission of sowing seeds (prayers) that will give fruit because even if we die, the prayers will never die. Because of that, this place exists because of prayers that have been sown. And now we see the fruit. We will not stop interceding for our valley; we will not stop devising new ways to take Jesus to the homes of our people. While we still have strength and breath, we will carry His gospel to our people.

Moving in the Hearts of Children & Parents

It has been over two years since the daycare in San Quintin has opened, and we have seen God work. Reaching the hearts of children with the Gospel and showing the love of Jesus to each child and family. Children are bringing home with them the examples that our caregivers are offering them. Many parents have commented that they have learned to pray from their children's model. Not only have we seen God working in the children's lives, but we have seen a softening in the parent's hearts as well.

Recently our Daycare director, Keila Maresa, put notepaper and a box for any prayer requests the parents may have. As a staff, they pray over each request daily. Every day the box is full! After seeing so many prayer requests and seeing the hurt that so many single mothers face, Keila and her team took action. They have invited the moms to come for a time to meet, have a snack, make a craft, but more importantly, spend time getting to know these women and invest in them. These women are desperate for support; many live here far away from their families, raising children alone. The Daycare team has been so encouraged by the confidence that these families have put in them and are excited to see how God will open doors and change hearts.

God's Work in a Dangerous Place

Six months have passed since I arrived at the mission base in San Pedro Navolato, Sinaloa. The time has gone by very quickly.

My job here in Sinaloa is to do outreach in various migrant camps that we visit during the week. The way we take the word of God to these places is through Bible classes, songs, and games. Occasionally we give out groceries and donations that arrive. My favorite days of the week are Monday, Wednesday, and Friday because I get to spend my time with the children and teens in San Pedro.

Every day I see God work in wonderful ways in the children and the people who surround me.

I have seen God's protective hand every time I go to the migrant camps as he protects me on the way from dangerous people and accidents on the highway. During this time, God has been speaking in my life in a way I have never experienced before.

In my prayer time with God, I have asked that He give me a Word for the children:

"Even though my father and my mother abandon me, the Lord will receive me in his arms." (Psalms 27:10).

I remembered that in the same way He has me in his arms, He will also hold these little ones in His arms.

One of the ways you could bless me is to keep me in your prayers. I'm also praying that God will send the right people to help us in this ministry.

GOD BLESS YOU ABUNDANTLY!
