God Writes Love Stories

By: Janelle Keller
Executive Director

One of my favorite love stories of the year came out of Rafa's House. One of the men who came to live there, Mizrian, came out of a life of alcohol abuse that had threatened to destroy his life. He had been married in a civil court to Adriana years before and has two teenage kids.

Mizrian began helping out at the Baja Mission as they needed construction workers for their various projects there. After being there for a short time, he started to notice a difference in the staff he was around. By being at the Mission, he experienced the power of the Holy Spirit and surrendered his life to Christ.

A few months later, Mizrian approached Alfonso, the supervisor of Rafa's House, and said he wanted to have a church wedding with his wife and recommit their marriage to God. So he worked the next couple months to save money to have a wedding at Rafa's House.

So now Mizrian, Adriana, and their kids are back living together and are faithfully attending church. I love hearing stories of how God is restoring broken lives and families.

How have you experienced God's love in your life?

"I have seen how He has been in charge of my life, even in the smallest details. Not only has He encouraged my heart to follow Jesus, I have witnessed Him supporting my family and I materially."

Víctor Reyes
Children's Home Director, Baja Mission

"God reminds me of His love through His Word, the Holy Spirit, and believers around me. Through these, I am reminded of His promises, that even in the challenging moments of life, He is working something out for my good and promises to redeem the situation. I can depend on Him!"

Kristi Garcia
Director of Finance & Donor Relations

"Throughout my service to God, he has been good, walking by my side and sustaining my life. He shows himself to me in people and children. His way of caring for me in every area of my life is amazing. He has put people who walk by my side in my ministry here in the mountains who embrace me with their prayers and words of encouragement. His love, kindness, and generosity are unmatched. He supports His work with love."

Mabel Ramos
Missionary, Sierra Norte, Oaxaca

"I can feel the love of God through the people who work in His Ministry. I see how our Lord moves hearts from different places that leave homes, jobs, and dreams to serve Him. All this is driven by a single reason -- to show God's love to the children and love them as He wants us to love them."

Said Méndez
Children's Home Director, Oaxaca Home

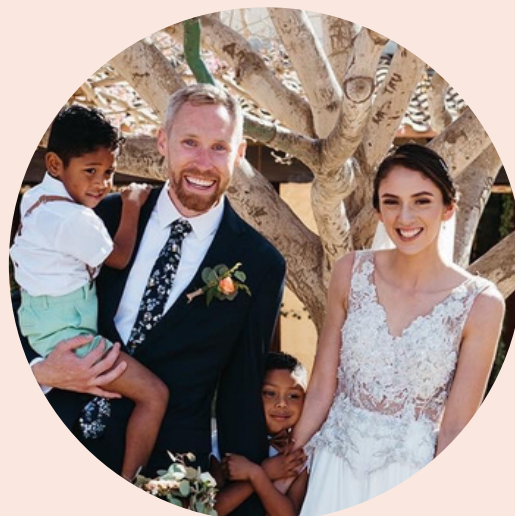

"This year God has shown me His love through working with the children. He has taught me how He can restore a heart and return joy to it. This has led me to experience a new level of faith and peace."

Leo Martinez
Director, Baja School

"I experience God's love through His faithfulness. He is faithful through every life circumstance; in blessing and in torment. He is faithful when I distance myself from Him - even though I do not deserve it. He is faithful through healing health scares. He is faithful when He chooses not to heal. All my life He has been faithful. For that reason I will proclaim the goodness of God and the love He has shown me."

Andrés Classen
Teacher, Baja School
