ALL THAT HE HAS DONE:

JANELLE KELLER
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Today I read in Luke 8 when Jesus casts a legion of demons out of a man. What stood out to me in this reading was verse 39, when Jesus tells the man, "Go back to your home and tell all that God has done for you." I immediately thought of His Ministry and all that God has done for us. I thought of all the miracles He has performed and all the lives He has restored. And my hope for this month's newsletter is reflected in this verse. This is going into your homes, and as you hear us reflect on what we are grateful for, you will get a little taste of what God has done for us.

A Psalm for giving grateful praise

Shout for joy to the Lord, all the earth.
Worship the Lord with gladness; come before him with joyful songs.

Know that the Lord is God. It is He who made us, and we are His; we are His people,
the sheep of His pasture.

Enter His gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise; give thanks to Him and praise His name.

For the Lord is good and His love endures forever; His faithfulness continues through all generations.

Psalm 100 (NIV)

GIVE THANKS FOR HE IS GOOD

"what are you thankful for?"

"Being a part of His plan. When I decided to be part of His Ministry, I did not imagine how much God would work in me and the lives of the children that He puts in our care. Being a caregiver for house #2 is why I am totally grateful – for each one of the lives of the girls and the time He allows me to take care of them and love them."

Judith Hernández, Caregiver, Baja Mission

"For life. I am grateful because I get to witness people following their dreams, just as I do. We live with the ability to follow God – to do things people think are crazy. But that's the beauty – in the Bible it talks about people doing crazy things and we get to do them too."

Esteban Valadez, Missionary Supervisor, Oaxaca

"His [God's] fidelity and provision with me and the ministry here in San Pedro. Two years have passed, and I thank God because it has only been Him who has sustained me, and day by day, through the children, He shows me why I am in Sinaloa. Thank you God."

Zenaida Ambrosio, Missionary, Sinaloa

"My wife – she keeps me grounded. It's like having God with me. I have to die to my flesh constantly from my old life, and she is a beautiful reminder."

Carlos Lopez, Missionary, La Costa region - Oaxaca

"Having the opportunity to work with a team of people who love Jesus and who are passionate about loving our kids well."

Abby Martin, Counselor, Baja School

"My health. Months ago, I was in poor health, and now I am completely healthy. Also, for the blessing of belonging to this foundation and meeting so many children who fill my heart and who are now my family."

Linda Rivera, Supervisor, Tijuana Girls' Home

"The better life here [in the mission]. They help me here. I go to a good school. I have good examples here, and there is respect for the adults. I feel free here."

Antonio, teenage boy, Oaxaca Mission

"God's miracles in my life. He saved my daughter. She had lupus and a small chance of surviving. Her lung collapsed and then one day she was breathing, and He healed her. And Samara, my granddaughter. In treatment for my daughter's lupus, they used chemo. The doctors told her she would never have babies. However, she got pregnant. Then, the doctors said she would have a deformity. But when she came, there was nothing – my perfect little Samara."

Rosa Carro, Carlos' wife, La Costa region - Oaxaca
